

MANAGED WIRED NETWORK

WHAT IS NSI ADVANCE MANAGED WIRED NETWORK?

NSI Advance Managed Wired Network is the backbone of the network connecting all services and devices together.

#1 Monitoring

Receive System health monitoring and remediation - Automated monitoring and ticket generation with SLAs to ensure maximum uptime with priority queuing and after hours P1 support. Monitoring and alerting on critical security vulnerabilities.

#2 Move, Add, Change

You also get Move, Add, Change, and Deletion services for endpoints and user accounts. Configuration changes, without changing the design of the network needed for day to day operations.

#3 Version Control, Software Updates, Patch Management, Code Upgrades

With NSI Advance Managed Wired Network your current version is always the NSI recommended version, applying updates/patches, and monitoring compliance.

#4 License Review

NSI Advance Managed Wired Network provides a semi-annual review of license compliance and entitlement.

#5 Best Practice Review

Design and configuration review(s) based on NSI best practices Hardware End of Life Status Notifications of hardware EOLife/Support status changes.

#6 Ticket Tracker Portal Access

Access to NSI's Ticket Tracker Portal for management of your account, devices, projects, and tickets.

#7 Business Alignment Meetings | Reporting

Regular cadence reviews of historical ticket, SLA performance, and reporting

#8 Network Documentation & Backups

Provides technology specific documentation and configuration/application back-ups.

www.nsi1.com

888.247.0900